

Now available through Westcoast Child Care Resource Centre:

“It Looked Like Maple Syrup” Workshop Resource Package

This unique resource package explores maple syrup as a key element of Canadian culture. It is designed to facilitate a make-and-take style workshop for both family child care providers and early childhood educators. Participants explore several children’s storybooks and extension ideas to introduce young children to the important cultural aspects of maple syrup and maple sugar. Each participant leaves the workshop with an activity packet to use in their own programs as well as a completed felt board story called “It Looked like Maple Syrup”.

The resource package includes: a lesson plan, resource materials, patterns for the felt board story and instructions. Cost: $25.00

Package is available by email as a PDF document only.

Contact Westcoast Child Care Resource Centre at info@wstcoast.org to order the package.

*A PayPal invoice for $25 will be issued. Pre-payment is required to receive the package.

Visa payment can also be accepted by phone. In person, you can pay by debit, cheque or cash.
