Literacy Development through Cultural Teaching: Aboriginal Activities Make & Take

Saturday September 11, 2010

Time: 10:30 am – 12:30 pm

2 hours

Children's achievements depend on investments made in their early years. Come and explore ways to encourage young children's literacy skills through a variety of aboriginal culturally supportive activities. The activities in this workshop are intended for use as a springboard for adaptation to fit the needs of children from the communities we serve. Participants will leave the workshop with templates and patterns to use in their own programs.

Presenter: Nora Mejia, B.Ed. & E.C.E. Nora's work in ECE is inspired by the principles of the Reggio Emilia approach as well as Montessori Training. She works for Westcoast Child Care Resource Centre as a Diversity Trainer. She has been enjoying working with children and their families for over 20 years in a variety of settings.

Fee: $40 (includes $5 to cover the cost of materials). Maximum number of participants is 20.

Bring scissors that can cut neatly through felt and a black narrow tip indelible marker.

Helping Children Cope with Change

Saturday September 18, 2010

Time: 10:30 am – 12:30 pm

2 hours

Many children must deal with overwhelming change and stress, both at home and in the wider world, as our lives become increasingly complicated. Early childhood educators can teach and model skills that will help children move through change and embrace its gifts. Learn and share how to help young children to share and process what is happening to them in age-appropriate ways. Please come prepared to share and discuss your ideas and experiences. The art of learning respects and values each individual's learning process and history.

Presenter: Joanna Fletcher is a passionate educator who has spent 14 years teaching and learning with groups and individuals in schools, workplaces and homes. She uses improvisational theatre techniques to communicate complex ideas easily. Her work is informed by the Co-Active Coaching Model and the belief that if learning is to stick, it must be fun!

Fee: $35. Maximum number of participants is 30.

Guidance and Preschoolers: Revisiting the Fundamentals

Saturday October 23, 2010

Time: 10:30 am – 12:30 pm

2 hours

The foundation for helping to guide children in positive ways is through establishing trustful relationships with a child and his/her family, no matter what a child's special needs or circumstances are. This workshop reflects a "back to basics" approach to guidance during the early years. Through meaningful discussions and problem solving activities, participants will share ideas, strategies and techniques that can be used to help support children and the adults who care for them.

Presenter: Claude Painter has taught children who required extra supports for approximately 20 years in both specialized and inclusive agencies. She has been at Langara College for 19 years teaching in the ECE Diploma Program and the ECE Special Education Citation Program. She has also served both as a coordinator and as the chair of Langara's Early Childhood Education Department, and as co-chair of the Provincial Post-Secondary ECE Articulation Committee and continues to serve on numerous other committees both at Langara and for philanthropic groups in the community.

Fee: $35. Maximum number of participants is 30.

Conflict Resolution Skills for Young Children

Wednesday November 3, 2010

Time: 7:00 pm – 9:00 pm

2 hours

Like all people, children experience conflict in their daily interactions with their peers. Adults are usually called upon to help children resolve these conflicts. Often this means that the adult imposes a solution to the problem rather than using the opportunity to teach children ways they can resolve problems on their own. As a part of normal social-emotional development, children need to learn skills to resolve conflict. This experiential workshop will offer adults strategies they can use that help build young children's conflict resolution skills.

Presenter: Maria E. Ressel, B.Ed, ECE, has extensive experience in facilitating Cross Cultural & Diversity Education courses and workshops for families, early childhood educators, family child care providers and community service professionals, including the Introduction to Family Child Care Course and Safe Spaces training. She also has worked in a variety of early years educational settings, from pre-school to grade school. Her background includes considerable work with new immigrant and refugee families and young parents from diverse backgrounds.

Fee: $35. Maximum number of participants is 30.

Big Science for Little Hands

Wednesday January 12, 2011

Time: 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm

2 hours

Caregivers, parents and preschool educators provide many creative opportunities for young children to explore their world. That's why Science World has created Big Science for Little Hands, an evolving collection of free science resources for teachers and caregivers of 3–5 year-old children. The goal is to encourage activities that inspire further exploration and discovery. In this workshop, you'll have the opportunity to try out a selection of hands-on science activities from Science World resource packages, with a special focus on the newest selections. We'll share experiences doing science with young children, and discuss how the activities might work in your setting.

Presenter: Science World Facilitator

Fee: $35. Maximum number of participants is 25.

Beyond Head & Shoulders: Integrating Diversity Concepts into Circle Time

Wednesday January 26, 2011

Time: 7:00 pm – 9:00 pm

2 hours

Experiences in the early years are critical for establishing a sense of self and understanding of the diversity of the communities where we live. As early childhood educators we can go beyond “head and shoulders” notion of circle times to offer programming that fosters appreciation of diversity and provides life lessons to enhance child’s the view of the world. Interactive circle times can promote children’s positive self-esteem and healthy cultural identity. In this workshop we will look at a variety of resources that ensure anti-bias and diversity education is incorporated into all our circle times.

Presenter: Nora Mejia, B.Ed. & E.C.E. Nora’s work in ECE is inspired by the principles of the Reggio Emilia approach as well as Montessori Training. She works for Westcoast Child Care Resource Centre as a Diversity Trainer. She has been enjoying working with children and their families for over 20 years in a variety of settings.
