

Early Years Programs

The following is a list of Early Years Programs (EYP) in the City of Vancouver. These programs offer drop-in sessions or registered programs for families to attend with young children. These programs include:

- A. Community Centres: A variety of programs available for registration for families and children of all ages.
- B. Family Places: Programs offered include drop-ins for parents, caregivers and children, peer counseling, prenatal programs, clothing exchanges, community kitchens and nutrition education.
- C. Neighbourhood Houses: Various programs offered for all children and families, including newcomers, such as literacy, family resource programs, childcare and much more.
- D. Strong Start Programs: StrongStart is a free drop-in program in some Vancouver schools that is offered to parents and caregivers with children ages zero to five years old. You must register to attend. Visit Vancouver School Board website for registration information www.vsb.bc.ca/Student_Learning/Early-Learners/StrongStart.
- E. Vancouver Public Libraries: Public libraries are located around the City. Many programs, such as story times are offered for children, families and caregivers. Visit www.vpl.ca for hours, programs and locations.
