Social and Emotional Learning Foundations

Wednesday April 3, 2019 Time: 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm 2 hours

This workshop will allow educators to develop their understanding of social and emotional learning (SEL). This is an introductory workshop for all practitioners and parents. Together we will explore the 5 domains of SEL and practices to explicitly teach SEL skills.

Objectives:

- Identify the 5 domains of Social Emotional Learning and how they pertain to the BC Early Learning Framework.
- Develop an understanding of embedding Social Emotional Learning into all areas of our programs.
- Highlight free or low cost Social Emotional Learning resources for diverse needs and ages.

★ Suitable for students, parents, adult instructors/administrators, novice, intermediate and experienced early care and learning professionals working with children from infant/toddlers to school age children, including children with extra support needs.

Presenter: Stephanie Sagmoen Siqueira. Stephanie is currently working as an early literacy and numeracy teacher in the Surrey School district. She began her career as an ECE in the lower mainland and has since developed a passion for global education working in classrooms across the country as well as in Europe and Brazil. Her work has focused on early learning, pedagogical documentation and social and emotional learning.

Nurturing Leadership

Saturday April 6, 2019 Time: 10:30 am - 3:00 pm 4 hours

SFU Child Care Society believes that each of our educators have the skills and ability to lead in their area of expertise. Through the nurturing of collaborative relationships, educators grow in their capacity to engage with new and old philosophies. During this workshop we will explore areas of leadership opportunities that can be nurtured, and examine the role of ongoing mentoring with our educators long after practicum and licensing hours are satisfied. By sharing our strategies, we attempt to create a plan for creating leadership in your program/facility.

Objectives:

- Explore areas of leadership opportunities.
- Examine the role of ongoing mentoring with educators.
- Discuss strategies to create a plan for encouraging leadership in your program/facility.

★ Suitable for adult instructors/administrators, novice, intermediate and experienced early care and learning professionals working with children of all ages, from infant/toddlers to school age children, including children with extra support needs.

Presenter: Jacqueline Ewonos. Jacqueline is the Program Director at SFU Childcare, overseeing 6 IT programs. She has been practicing in the childcare field in different capacities over the past 25 years. Most recently she worked as a Child Care Licensing Officer before moving to SFU 3 years ago to support educators in their relationships with children.

Creative Dance Experiences for Preschool Children

Saturday April 27, 2019 Time: 10:30 am - 3:00 pm 4 hours

Children love to dance and this workshop will take you through age-appropriate movement elements and show you how to engage children in dance experiences. The first half of the workshop gets participants comfortable dancing themselves, while understanding through experiential learning that presenting dance and dancing with children does not have to be intimidating - in fact, it's loads of fun!

Objectives:

- Become comfortable dancing with children and learn to incorporate and present dance activities for children.
- Learn the basic structure of a dance class within various settings.
- Understand, through experiential learning, how dance as an expressive medium has the power to engage the body, mind, and heart.

★ Suitable for students, novice and intermediate early care and learning professionals working with preschool age children (3-5 years old).

Presenter: Lorraine White-Wilkinson. Lorraine holds a Masters degree in Arts Education with a focus on dance education. She has over 30 years practical experience teaching children of all ages and has been an Artist in Residence for the Vancouver School Board for 15 years. Currently Lorraine teaches preschool dance for the City of Vancouver, Arts Umbrella and The Dance Centre. Lorraine also teaches Dance in Education at Simon Fraser University.

Safe Spaces: Bullying Prevention for School Age Children

2 Saturdays, April 27 & May 4, 2019 Time: 9:30 am - 4:00 pm *12 hours (in-class training)

Location: Kiwassa Neighbourhood House, 2425 Oxford St., Vancouver, BC, V5K 1M7

Safe Spaces is a focused, integrated approach to social-emotional development that helps prevent bullying by growing pro-social behaviours. Safe Spaces builds a sense of community where all children, staff, and families feel they are valued and that they belong; this is the foundation of a safe space. Safe Spaces for School Age Children is designed in four modules, and explores several conflict resolution models. Three domains within each module offer a balanced and well-rounded program with ready-to-use resources and ideas that create safe spaces for all children and families in our programs.

NOTE: After completing this training participants will be invited to our free Safe Spaces Community of Practice sessions to deepen their learning.

Objectives:

- To understand how the Safe Spaces program works.
- To explore the 4 Safe Spaces modules.
- To learn how to implement Safe Spaces in child care programs with school age children.
- To become familiar with available resources and support.

★ Suitable for school age child care professionals working with school age children, including children with extra support needs.

Presenter: Tyler Summers. ECE, SACCC, has been working in School Age Care for 23 years and is currently the Program Manager at Jericho Kids Club and chair of the School Age Child Care Association of British Columbia. He also serves as co-chair of the Vancouver Middle Childhood Matters Steering Committee, is a member of The Ministry of Family and Family Development Early Childhood Occupational Standards Reference Group, and a member of the Vancouver Westside Childhood Development Hub.

Fee: $150 (workbook included).

*A certificate for 13 hours of training will be issued upon completion of the 2-days training: 1 hour for reading the pre-reading material plus 12 hours for attending in-class training (6 hours each day).

Requirements:

- ❖ Must register for the two days of training.
- ❖ Must attend the two days of training to obtain a certificate of participation.
- ❖ Must read the pre-reading material that will be emailed prior to the first day of training.

Neighborhood Emergency Preparedness Program

Wednesday May 1, 2019 Time: 6:30 pm - 8:00 pm 1.5 hours

The Neighborhood Emergency Preparedness Program (NEPP) is a program from the City of Vancouver to teach the public emergency preparedness. This session will teach you how to be prepared for any emergency or disaster you may be faced with, whether you are at home or work. You will learn personal and family preparedness, what to do when disaster strikes, how to connect with your family afterwards (if you are not together), how to perform a "home/office hazard hunt", and how to prepare your pets.

Objectives:

- Prepare for earthquakes and other hazards.
- Prepare for emergencies with your family, children and pets.
- Learn how to minimize hazards in your home and prepare for emergencies in an apartment.

★ Suitable for students, parents, adult instructors/administrators, novice, intermediate and experienced early care and learning professionals working with children of all ages, from infant/toddlers to school age children, including children with extra support needs.

Presenter: An approved facilitator from NEPP. NEPP instructors are a specially trained group of volunteers with the Vancouver Volunteer Corps. They're not only knowledgeable in emergency preparedness, but actively train and provide their knowledge and skills to real life emergency situations with the City.

Fee: Free of charge for everyone. Participants must register to attend.

Understanding Children's Behaviour: A Positive Approach to Guidance

Saturday May 4, 2019 Time: 10:30 am - 3:00 pm 4 hours

This workshop will explore ways to guide children's behaviour in an effective way. We will talk about creating a child centered curriculum and environment to manage these issues. We will also discuss case studies and communication with parents.

Objectives:

Affect Regulation for Caregivers

Saturday May 11, 2019 Time: 10:30 am – 3:00 pm 4 hours

This workshop explains the neuroscience and neuropsychology of emotion, the differences between types of affect, and how several researched methods can be modeled and used for regulation. Discussion will center on how educators can model, create, and teach positive affect to improve a child's overall well-being and learning.

Objectives:

- Explore the neuroscience and neuropsychology of the function of emotion.
- Discuss emotion regulation and health.
- Learn strategies and skills to create better emotion regulation.
- Recognize strategies on modeling, creating and teaching positive affect to children.

★ Suitable for students, parents, adult instructors/administrators, novice, intermediate and experienced early care and learning professionals working with children of all ages, from infant/toddlers to school age children, including children with extra support needs.

Presenter: Dr. Kathryn E. Patten. Dr. Kathryn (Kate) E. Patten is an adjunct professor at Simon Fraser University. Her Ph.D. elucidates the neuroscience and neuropsychology of emotion and its impact on teaching. As the director of the Neuro Emotional Literacy Program (NELP), Kate's current research focuses on improving emotional literacy in order to promote emotional and physical well-being in families.

Origami: When the Paper Folds, the Mind Unfolds

Wednesday May 15, 2019

Time: 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm 2 hours

According to research, the manipulation of paper in Origami (the art of paper folding) is an activity that engages the whole brain. When both hands are engaged, motor impulses activate the language portion of the brain, also stimulating the prefrontal cortex which regulates memory and other cognitive functions like self-regulation. Origami is an excellent way for children to discover the principles of math, geometry, sequencing, spatial relationships, sequential memory and reading. Best of all, all it requires is one small sheet of paper!

Objectives:

- Learn simple origami that 5 year olds to school-age children may be able to make by themselves.
- Practice making origami animals that can be used in storytelling.

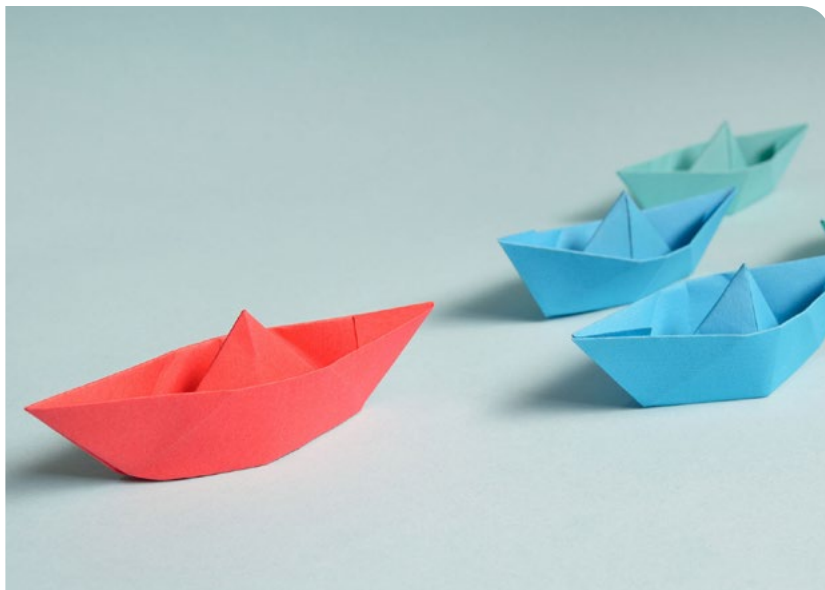

★ Suitable for students, parents, adult instructors/administrators, novice and intermediate early care and learning professionals working with 5 year olds to school age children.

Presenter: Aiko Matsushiba. Aiko has been a Registered LNR Family Child Care Provider since 2008 and has been enjoying origami since she was a child. She has been using her creativity and artistic skills teaching origami to people of all ages at South Vancouver Family Place, Strong Start and at Vancouver CCRR Network Meetings.

Multiculturalism in Observing and Documenting the Learning and Care of Toddlers

Wednesday June 5, 2019

Time: 6:30 pm – 8:30 pm 2 hours

Participants will explore how approaches in ECE pedagogy and practice have shifted, through examining case studies with a focus on internationalism and multiculturalism. Communities in Vancouver are becoming increasingly culturally and linguistically diverse and multicultural encounters are common in most ECE settings. We will look into the case studies to shed some light on contemporary issues and share tools to guide our ECE practices with children, families and communities.

Objectives:

- Explore key concepts and characteristics of current concerns and issues around multiculturalism in ECE in the Lower Mainland, BC.
- Continue to develop understanding and capacity for engaging and advocating multiculturalism for inclusive ECE practices.

★ Suitable for parents, adult instructors/administrators, novice, intermediate and experienced early care and learning professionals working with children of all ages, from infant/toddlers to school age children, including children with extra support needs.

Presenter: Koichi Haseyama. Koichi is a PhD candidate with a specialization in educational sociolinguistics at SFU. During his entrepreneurship and administration of an international preschool, he gained his Master's degree in Teaching English to Young Learners at the University of York, in the UK. As an adjunct instructor at SFU, UBC, and other foreign post-secondary institutions, he has been teaching in various areas including Global Early Childhood Education and Care.

Introduction to Emergent Curriculum

Saturday June 8, 2019 Time: 10:30 am – 3:00 pm 4 hours

How do you include children's thoughts, interests and ideas into your program planning? How can we as educators bring nature into our spaces and include recyclable materials in our room set up? Have you ever tried putting together a construction zone for large motor play? Come and discover strategies for incorporating emergent curriculum opportunities into your daily practice and how to use observation, documentation and BC's Early Learning Framework to assist educators in providing engaging reflective learning experiences for children and their families.

Objectives:

- Discover how to offer opportunities for children and families to explore your learning environment.
- Discuss evaluating your program and potential changes that could be made to layouts.
- Recognize the important role documentation plays in ECE programs.

★ Suitable for students, adult instructors/administrators, novice, intermediate and experienced early care and learning professionals working with children of all ages, from infant/toddlers to school age children, including children with extra support needs.

Presenter: Julie Hansen. Julie became an Early Childhood Educator in the year 2000. Since then, she's gained experience in a variety of areas within the field of Early Childhood Education as director of a preschool, supervisor of after-school care as well as 3-5 and Infant Toddler programs. Her primary focus has evolved to encompass team leadership, management training and program development. Julie has had articles published in provincial and national ECE journals on the topic of emergent curriculum and leadership. Her goal as an Early Childhood Educator and facilitator is to support fellow educators and early years professionals provide high quality early learning experiences for children and families.

Sexual Health and Children: Being an Approachable Adult

Saturday June 15, 2019 Time: 10:30 am – 3:00 pm 4 hours

Sexual Health Education attempts to teach health, science and safety to children of all ages. The most important and meaningful person to talk about this complex subject is the caregiver or parent. Research says the earlier the better for caregivers and children to build a safe place to discuss this personal and sensitive topic at home. A child's health and safety are the key reasons Sex Ed is important in the early years. You will find that there are many other reasons to teach and talk about sex with young children, now and in the future. This workshop helps carers to discuss age appropriate Sex Ed in different environments.

Objectives:

- Increase our comfort and competency with teaching and talking about sexuality, bodies, gender and boundaries.
- Understand how to coach and counsel children on appropriate body science words, boundaries, public vs private behaviours, gender and language.

★ Suitable for students, parents, adult instructors/administrators, novice and intermediate early care and learning professionals working with children of all ages, from infant/toddlers to school age children, including children with extra support needs.

Presenter: Julia Saunders, MEd. Julia Saunders is a certified coach and counsellor in Sexuality, Family Life and Relationships and she designs and delivers engaging Sexual Health Education workshops for parents and professionals. She is a best selling author for her empowerment guidebook for parents and caregivers. "Bodies, Boundaries & Delight" has an easy, age-appropriate method to support caregivers in talking with children aged 0-5 about body science, boundaries, consent, gender and other important topics of development.
